

Should you take the GMAT at a test center or online?

Accepted by over 7,700 programs at more than 2,400 business schools, the GMAT™ exam was designed for candidates who want to accelerate their future and achieve their career ambitions. With two convenient options of taking it at a test center or online, you can choose the test delivery channel that works best for you.

	Test Center	Online
Duration	2 hours, 15 minutes.
Structure	3 sections (64 questions), completed in the order of your choosing: Quantitative Reasoning, Verbal Reasoning, Data Insights.
Appointment Availability	7 days a week during test center operating hours.	7 days a week, around the clock.
Review & Edit	Bookmark and review as many answers as you want, and change up to 3 answers per section, within the section time remaining.
Score Scale	205–805 and all 3 sections are weighted equally towards your total score.
Cost	Fees range from $250–$275, depending on location.	Fees range from $275–$310, depending on location.
Reschedule	Reschedule and cancel fees based on location, currency and advance notice.
Scratch Work Resources	5 laminated pages and 2 dry erase markers are provided.	A physical whiteboard, dry erase marker, and eraser are permitted, and access to an online whiteboard is provided.
Accommodations	Additional testing time, breaks, and access to other resources.
Your Score	View your unofficial score on screen immediately following the exam. Your Official Score Report will be available typically within 1-3 days (but may take up to 20).
Score Validity	Scores are valid for 5 years.
Exam Attempts	5 attempts permitted in a rolling 12-month period across both delivery channels; no lifetime limit.
Score Sending	Send 5 free score reports to programs within 48 hours of receiving your Official Score. Additional score reports are available for a fee.

Learn more and register at mba.com/register

©2024 Graduate Management Admission Council™ (GMAC™). All rights reserved.

